

ROOMMATE MATCH REQUEST FORM

This request is only used when you do not know the person sharing your cabin and need Life Journeys to provide you with a roommate.

For those participants who are traveling single and would like to avoid paying a single supplement for the cruise, Worldview Travel will try to provide a suitable roommate match. Due to the fact that we cannot guarantee a match, the following rules and stipulations must be agreed upon by all parties:

If for some reason Worldview Travel is not able to find a roommate match by the date of final payment, April 29th, 2008 (the time of additional penalties), a participant will be given the following options:

- 1) Canceling the cruise with a full refund except for a $25 service fee. This policy does not cover any additional air or other transportation costs.
- 2) Agree to taking a single cabin with the additional collection of any single supplement charges, with the understanding that if a roommate match can be made prior to sailing a refund of these supplemental charges will be made.

Worldview Travel will take full responsibility of advising all participants of the date when this decision must be made. Matches are normally made about 1 week before final payment of April 29th, 2008. We also recommend buying your airline tickets after you have been matched up – unless you are willing to take the cabin at the single price and are going no matter what.

After Final Payment Date:

In the event that a person who has a roommate match must cancel their cruise, the additional charge of the full single rate for their roommate, will be paid by the person that had to cancel. All efforts will be made to find a replacement roommate but that cannot be guaranteed. This policy protects the non-canceling roommate and Worldview Travel of any supplemental charges.
