PRE AND POST HOTEL PACKAGES FROM REGENT CRUISES - MOOREA

Moorea, Tahiti's sister island, is unlike any other in French Polynesia, appearing to be practically untouched by man. The island's velvety green peaks and sheltered azure bays are incredibly beautiful. There are no towns on Moorea, just small settlements scattered across the coastal plains where people continue to fish and live off the land – a timeless enclave of traditional island living.

Both hotel programs below include: 3 or 4 nights accommodations, pier or airport to hotel transfers for Air/Sea guests, roundtrip ferry transfer Papeete / Moorea / Papeete, full breakfast daily, meet and greet service, and tax and service charges.

Prices below are per person based on double occupancy. Single rates are available upon request.

Both of these hotel packages include airport to hotel transfers for any passengers taking the Regent Air program (prices listed under "Air Sea Guests"). The prices listed under "Cruise only guests" are for those not buying the Regent Air program, and do not include transfers.

Moorea InterContinental Resort and Spa

Sheltered from the prevailing winds, this first class hotel is hidden away in lush botanical gardens, nestled between the mountains and the lagoon. It provides a sublime setting, where you have a wide choice of rooms between the Lanai (standard main building room) or private and independent beach or overwater bungalows. Whichever you choose you will not regret discovering the natural and breathtaking beauty and tranquility of their location. Also on property is the Moorea Dolphin Center, where you can enjoy interactive encounters with dolphins, and the Helene's Spa Center
